Executive Council meeting - Agenda

1. Consequence of e voting regarding Annex 12 (World championship Women) Article No.2 on number of participants.

Executive Council took note of information from the FMJD president that this may create serious difficulties to attract organizers of the World championship and also a contradiction of the decision of the FMJD General Assembly in 2023 in Drancy on option of having 24 players for the World Championship Women and proposal on 20 participants that was voted during latest electronic voting procedure.

2. President's proposition on Annex 12 (World championship Women) Article No.2 on number of participants.

The president's proposals were discussed. It was decided to prepare new proposal with options on number of participants and options to increase it and after short consultation among Executive Council members send it for voting to all non-suspended federations.

3. Various.

Secretary General informed of necessary technical corrections for Rules®ulations of the World Championship Teams. Executive Council unanimously agreed on corrections proposed and decided to publish updated Rules®ulations on the FMJD website.
